Breaking Bad RV Tours made its debut in October 2013 during the infamous Funeral Procession for Walter White then began offering public tours in March 2013. The Breaking Bad RV Tour takes guests on a 3.5 hour adventure visiting the most popular Albuquerque locations featured in the hit show. Operator and RV Tour Guide, Frank Sandoval, states “Riding in the warmth and comfort of the RV is the best way to experience the sites of the show. We’re excited to add in some Halloween fun and entertainment too! With only 13 guests on each tour, our riders love the personalized time and attention they receive. They love all the photo opportunities with the RV. It has lights, sound, video and even a mini-lab that guests love to take pictures next to. I actually worked on the show and love sharing all the behind the scenes secrets!”

Over 100,000 entertained guests have enjoyed the Ghost Tour of Old Town, Albuquerque’s original Ghost Walk, since April 2001. History & Ghost Tours of Old Town works with a variety of professional Ghost Hunters, Paranormal Investigators, Historians, Psychics, and Skeptics, and does not attempt to dictate what a person should think or believe. Guests are invited to view the evidence then decide for themselves the possibility of the existence of the supernatural. History & Ghost Tour Manager, Julia Brown, states “We look forward to providing guests with this new experience! Traveling around in the Breaking Bad RV, while doing Ghost Hunts in spooky locations, will be fun for everyone! And we’re thrilled to help with the restoration of the historic Fairview Cemetery.
